

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY
QUATSINO FIRST NATION

REGISTERED NURSE

An exciting opportunity exists for a Registered Nurse to provide Community Health and Home Care nursing services to the Quatsino First Nation. This position requires a dynamic nurse who can deliver culturally appropriate health programs to the community in conjunction with local physicians. Responsible for delivery of a broad range of community health programs and primary health care services to a population of 200, including immunization package and supervision of the Home and Community Care program.

Must have current registration with CRNBC, Immunization package an asset. Position 20-25 hours per week, days can be flexible. Orientation and support will be provided by current Community Health Nurse.

Please submit resume and letter of application to:

Angelika Starr
Health Director
Quatsino First Nation
305 Quattishe Road
Coal Harbour, BC
V0N 1K0